

Ruth Fagen:

Ruth Fagen is the Limudei Kodesh Department Chair at the Abraham Joshua Heschel High School, where she also serves as Faculty Educator. Prior to coming to the Heschel School when the High School division opened, Ruth directed HaSha'ar, a year-long pre-service program for future day school educators that combined text study, seminars in educational theory and practice, and mentored internships in NY area day schools.

In addition to teaching at the Heschel High School, Ruth has taught undergraduate and graduate classes in Talmud and Rabbinics at JTS and the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College, as well courses in Teaching Jewish texts at the University of Pennsylvania and Yeshivat Chovevei Torah. Over the past 20 years, she has mentored student interns from the Pardes Educator's Program, JTS MA in Jewish Education, YCT, and Maharat.
